

JULY 2016 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

1. SAM KNOWLES is a printmaker creating original linocuts. His work has been exhibited at The Burlington Gardens site at The Royal Academy and in private galleries in Cambridge, Oxford, Bath, Newcastle and London. He has exhibited at The Affordable Art Fair's in both London and Bristol. Zebra linocut 50cm x 50cm. Visit www.sam-knowles.artweb.com or email samoknowles@hotmail.com for more information.

2. JOAN DOERR's bold, expressive abstract paintings are predominately inspired by different aspects of the Edinburgh landscape. She works intuitively and instinctively, applying and removing layers of paint and drawing until she is satisfied with the depth and atmosphere of the paintings. Visit www.joandoerr.com for details of London shows in June and July 2016.

3. GEORGIE WOOLRIDGE is a Cheltenham-based artist. She aims to uplift and recreate the beauty of nature through intricate patterns and vibrancy of colour. Inspired by her travels in India, she hand draws stunning birds, animals and flowers using pen and watercolours. For bespoke artwork, visit www.georgiewoolridge.com or call 07288 262645.

4. AMANDA IDOWU is an emerging British artist. Her prints are abstract and intense in colour – they are ideal for the modern home. Visit www.saatchiart.com/IDOWU or email amanda.idowu@gmail.com for details.

5. KRISTI KOHUT has been named "one of 7 next-big-thing artists" and her work has been featured by Domino Magazine, Lonny, HGTV, the Museum of Contemporary Art in Chicago, Rue Magazine, Luxe Magazine, My Domaine and Design Sponge. She is based in Chicago, IL. Visit www.choosehapi.com or email info@hapiart.com to find out more.

6. "Illusions" is a lyrical abstract painting created by TAMARA GONDA. She paints contemporary impressionistic paintings of nature and her surroundings. Her works have been shown at Galatea Fine Arts in Boston and other areas around New England. To view more of her pieces, visit www.tamaragonda.com or for more information email t_gonda@yahoo.com

7. Originally from Chile and trained as an architect, SOLANGE LEON IRIARTE's passionate works are created on the spot and in all weathers. Her dedication and loyalty to her subjects is evident in each intense mark. Incorporating atmosphere, line and technical skill, her works are immediately recognisable and found in many private collections. Visit www.solangeleon.com or www.cameroncontemporaryart.com for more information.

8. Inspired by her Moroccan upbringing and love of light, artist GHIZLAN EL GLAOU brings an amazing new dimension to her work with the use of back lighting... turning her already stunning paintings into truly unique interactive art. To find out more, visit www.ghizlanelglaoui.com or call 07917 015112.

9. KATHARINE MILLER captures the essence of the Cotswold landscape abstracting shape and colour with paper collages to create and hold an intimacy of time experienced within the vastness of rolling views: Evening Light – Late Summer (paper collage 39 x 43.5cms). Awarded the Fine Art scholarship to study at Oxford, she graduated in 1983. Now concentrating on her own work which can be viewed at Burford Affordable Art Gallery, OX18 4PA visit www.burford.co.uk or call 01993 823117 for information, visit www.katharinemillerfineart.com

10. 'White Light At Masthead' painted by VICTORIA KIFF is an interpretation of the figurehead at the prow of a ship. The painting is an addition to a series of highly sensitive oil paintings which combine the figure with sea and landscape. Visit www.victoriakiff.net or email victoria.e.kiff@gmail.com for more about Victoria's paintings, drawings and prints.

11. Figurative painter and printmaker, ANITA SAUNDERS, draws inspiration from her life-long affinity with the plants and animals of her Cotswold home. Colour and gestures help convey energy and emotions; breathing life into her subjects. Original paintings and limited edition prints are available. For more information, visit www.anitasaunders.co.uk or email anita@anitasaunders.co.uk

12. TAMARA DUBNYCKYJ is a Royal College of Art painting school graduate living and working in London, UK. She has been selected for the Marmite Painting Prize V. Tamara will be exhibiting on the following dates; 4 June-1 July, Block 336, London and 8 July-10 September, Highlanes Gallery, Drogheda, Ireland. Pictured is Rope, oil on canvas, 80x112cm. Visit www.tamaradubnyckyj.net or email tamara.dubnyckyj@network.rca.ac.uk for more information.

13. CAROL BRUTON's fabulous success with her OCEAN'S 9 sculpture has resulted in world-wide acclaim. The sculpture is created from polished steel with transparent coloured coating. The mirror-like finish is inspired by the morning light flung across the ocean. The central circles illustrate the oceans and seas of the world. For all enquires, visit www.carolbruton.com or email brutonart@gmail.com